Petitioner's counsel absent.

Mr. N.C. Gupta, Standing Counsel for the respondents.

2. Mr. N.C. Gupta, the learned Standing Counsel for the respondents submits that as the petitioner's claim is based on the alleged breach of contractual obligations, the writ petition is not maintainable and the petitioner ought to have approached the Civil Court for the redressal of the grievances projected in the writ petition.

3. However, as there is no representation on behalf of the petitioner, the writ petition is dismissed for want of prosecution.
